Andrea Wee

Andrea Wee, born in Singapore, studied in LaSalle-Sia hoping to one day specialise in Graphic design, but by chance she discovered her love for photography. Having studied in RMIT Melbourne, she proceeded to continue her self-exploration until she felt she was ready. She started exploring every single field possible and eventually found her innate passion and talent for automotive photography. By then, she had already accumulated awards from the likes of Creative Circle Awards and even Cannes. Back in 2011 she even won a D&AD award just before she decided move to a bigger market. Currently based in Shanghai, Andrea has already made her mark known within the Chinese market. In this challenging and demanding environment, she is still seen as one of the most progressive innovators amongst her p

Ekarat

Introducing Ekarat Wisuttiwan, a passionate photographer, and storyteller. Graduating from Rangsit University in 2000 with a background in art and photography, his expertise led him to work with magazines, universities, and advertising agencies until 2018 when a pivotal decision changed his trajectory.

As life took an unexpected turn with the pandemic, Ekarat moved back to Bangkok after spending six months in New York City, bringing back the knowledge and experience to the Southeast Asian market. Presently, he continues to thrive as both a photographer and filmmaker, crafting compelling visual tales that capture the essence of the human experience. With a vast portfolio reflecting his artistic evolution, Ekarat stands ready to contribute his unique perspective to the world of photography through Crispcontrasts Studios, among other exceptionally talented photographers.
